 SMS API usage in google app engine I want to use an SMS API to generate custom text messages. I want to send these SMS to a specific user. Which Google API should I use to achieve this? What are the SMS APIs supported by Google App Engine? A:
 Even though you can easily send SMS messages from your AppEngine, the SMS API is not available on AppEngine. You have two options: 1: If you are willing to pay, a SMS provider like Twilio can integrate with your AppEngine. 2: You can use a Sender-Receiver SMS Gateway. This is also common among sites that display content in a web page. Postoperative response of primary breast cancer to neoadjuvant therapy: implications for assessment of response and of pathological outcome. We compared primary breast cancers undergoing neoadjuvant treatment and their response to treatment with a set of clinical measures, including mammographic and histopathological changes and with subgroups of tumours characterized by gene expression profiles (GEP) of their stem/progenitor and non-stem progeny. Twelve primary human breast cancers were subjected to neoadjuvant therapy and the response was studied by serial mammographic examination, clinical and radiological review and core needle biopsy. Primary tumours and metastatic lymph nodes were studied histopathologically. 3e33713323
