"Out" is a song recorded by American country music artist Jason Aldean. It was released in January 2015 as the first single from his album Human Nature. The song became Aldean's second number one hit on the US Billboard Hot Country Songs chart in April 2015. It also became his ninth consecutive single to top the Canadian Hot 100, as well as his twelfth number one single on the Canada Country chart. Background and writing Aldean told Billboard that the song originally started as a pop song and was later turned into a country song. "Human Nature" includes a sample of "Karma Chameleon" by 1960s girl band The Marcels. Reception The song was received favourably by country music critics. Andrea Wade of Taste of Country gave the song a positive review, describing it as "unique" and "breezy", and a likable sing-along song. Wade also opined that it was "good to hear Jason Aldean back in top form". Carolyn Menyes of Music Times also praised the song, saying that it was an "infectious dance party song" and that Aldean had not dropped his "passion for real". She also called the song a "feel-good track". In addition, she opined that Aldean's vocal "is one of his strongest, and fans will love the way he sings it". Kevin John Coyne of Country Universe gave the song a B+ rating, and he also
