

"Freedom Finger" is a unique mobile game about driving a car, where the only thing you have to worry about is keeping a good score! Gameplay: Manipulating the car is all you have to worry about, because driving and dodging enemies is not required for this game, but if you manage to survive long enough, you will unlock new offensive options! Story: The world has ended, and a mysterious virus has taken over. No longer can you trust technology; you must rely on your own two hands and your mind for survival. ■ Critical acclaim: - nominated for Best Mobile Game, Japan Indie Connection 2018 - nominated for Best Game Design, Japan Game Connection 2017 ■ Bouncy Boi:The car in this game is an off-road bullet-proof dune buggy, and the focus is on driving and vehicle combat. Each player can choose their car, and can even choose a different vehicle type, or a different weapon, to increase their strategy. ■ Over 130 different vehicle types! Players will need to choose a vehicle type that best fits their needs, as you might find each vehicle will have different strengths and weaknesses. "Freedom Finger" is packed with fun extras, including: ■ Game Center achievements ■ Facebook and Twitter sharing ■ Customizable user interface ■ Dynamic notifications (just when you are low on fuel or out of ammo, get alerted!) ■ Game Center Achievements: Unique achievements for each different weapon. You'll need to master each weapon type to unlock them all. Game Center Achievements will unlock even more bonus rewards, such as: "Frag (Black)"-Killing a certain number of enemies with the Frag (Black) "Kick (Black)"-Killing a certain number of enemies with the Kick (Black) "Carapace (Black)"-Killing a certain number of enemies with the Carapace (Black) Main Features: ★ High-end Vehicle Combat with Blazing Fun! The focus of "Freedom Finger" is on getting and maintaining a high score, because only by getting your best time while driving through the desert terrain will you be able to unlock even more bonus features. ★ Various Difficulty Levels There are 4 difficulty levels in "Freedom Finger," and many of the game's features will change based on your difficulty level! ★ No

It's taken a while to get back into the groove of game making and I was hoping to get my 1-6 back out before then. I can't promise I will be making the 6, but I'm going to try. I have three games to show you and they are each of them a story. I started off with the trilogy "The Exodus Tri" and will be moving on from there. My other two games are "The Legend" and "Through the Ages". I hope you enjoy these games as much as I enjoyed making them. Thanks for playing and sorry for any lateness. I look forward to your comments and reviews. Song used - "You're All I Want" Music - Aesop Rock Animation - Augment Studios Welcome d41b202975

Aesop Rock - Freedom Finger Soundtrack Track listing References External links Category:2008 albums Category:Aesop Rock albums Category:Jade Tree Records albumsAnthony Gaines A native of Whittier California, Mr. Gaines was hired in 1968 by AARP as a full-time staff member and the following year became the organization's first director of Community Education. Throughout his career, Mr. Gaines has demonstrated an unyielding dedication to the AARP mission. As director of Community Education for almost 35 years, he developed a model that established a Civil Rights Action Center, established the AARP National Volunteer Corps and created the Village Aging Project. He is also responsible for developing AARP's "Old and Grey" campaign, which encourages older Americans to build healthier lives and leads AARP members to social, economic and political issues facing older Americans. Mr. Gaines was also instrumental in the development of AARP's "Life Experiences@50+" program in which 50+ adults living under the same roof share their life experiences with each other. However, some of Mr. Gaines' personal best work began after he was appointed the organization's first leader of the Consumerization Task Force, which was formed to address issues related to the rapidly changing consumer marketplace. During this time, Mr. Gaines created a number of programs designed to help older adults successfully maintain and age in their homes and communities. Mr. Gaines' tenure as AARP's first and only Leader for the Alliance@50+ resulted in the publication of a series of educational and advocacy materials for older adults. These materials represented AARP's commitment to assist older adults in gaining the information, resources and self-confidence needed to afford healthy choices, keep active, live independently and engage in society. Mr. Gaines also managed the Network@50+ Program, an organization composed of older adults who work with younger people to build pathways to seniors' local and national political activities. Mr. Gaines retired in 2001 and continued to consult on such projects as AARP's Older Americans Act. A veteran of the Air Force, Mr. Gaines served in both Korea and Vietnam and, in 2008, on the AARP History Committee in recognition of his contributions to the Civil Rights Movement and AARP'
