Such a study is very useful to understand the true value of Vedas for humanity. Perhaps there was more than one version of Manusmriti. Manusmriti is the first of such versions. In any event, many writers of Manusmriti were born in the second or early third century CE, which was a period of fragmentation of a state known as Sanatana Dharma, or Sanatana Vada, or Hinduism, or Vedanta. Let us look at that. It is referred to by the name Manusmriti mainly to distinguish it from other such works. We will see who Manusmriti was in what follows. It was compiled by a Brahmin, who some scholars consider to have been from the Kanchi corpus. The Manusmriti was written to prevent the break-up of Sanatana Dharma. It is the most famous text in the Brahminical tradition and is the first collection of Hindu law written. The authorship of the Manusmriti is uncertain and there are conflicting theories on who the author was. He has been an ardent worshipper of Sri Ranganathar and is one among the Sri Vadakalai disciples. He has followed the Navagraha Singalas sincerely. He is the only disciple in Tamil Nadu to offer Aradanam to the Kanchi Mutt. He is one of the few disciples, who have met Sri Jayaraman during his pilgrimages to India. He has been the chosen one by Sri Jayaraman to prepare Sri Rudram and other rituals in kanchi for the consecration of the Periya Vaithathal in 1969. He has contributed to many spiritual books with free verses during the past decades in Tamil Nadu.
