

Hindi Serial Jannat By Sanjay Khan ((EXCLUSIVE))

Jannat (Ludhiana) serial: Jannat (Hindi: जन्नत) is a 1965 Indian Hindi-language crime drama film directed by Sanjay Khan and starring him, Zeenat Aman and Anju Mahendru. It is a remake of 1963 Bollywood film Jagte Raho. After 13 years of interval Jannat was released on June 5, 1979. In 1979, the genre of thrillers in Hindi cinema was dominated by five films including Thodar Bhala The Dark Half (1979) by Satyajit Ray, the first Indian film to win an Academy Award for Best Foreign Film, and four films in which Sanjay Khan appeared. Sanjay's next film, Jahan Meri Begum (1980), got him the National Film Award for Best Actor. It was followed by his next three films, Chor Machaye Shor (1981), Teesri Aankh (1982) and Judaai (1982). Filmed in black and white, Jannat was set in 19th century Punjab during the time of the British Raj. These films are loosely based on the real-life story of the same name. Jannat was the first film produced by Sanjay Khan. Apart from Khan himself, a number of well-known artists appeared in the film, including Anju Mahendru, Zeenat Aman, Shammi, Rajendra Kumar and Feroz Khan. These actors and actresses had previously worked together in another Sanjay Khan film, Badhti Ka Raathan (1972). Jannat was also a commercial hit when it was first released. For example, when the film was shown in the US it grossed. After the National Awards for Best Actor and Best Actress for her role in Jannat, Zeenat Aman went on to appear in ten other Hindi films, including the horror film Trilogy of Terror (1983). Another film named Jannat was released on June 5, 2013 in Pakistan, but it was directed by Muhammad Ali Talukdar.
